Dear Parents / Caregivers Kia ora koutou

As I write this note to you this morning I can see the Yr 7/8 Primary students packing up and preparing to leave for their school camp to Wainui.

The pictured Yr 5/6 students closely followed with their travel to Woodend Christian Camp. One student said to me "I am so excited I'm going on camp!"

My thanks to the teachers who have organized these two camps, and to those parents who are transporting, attending and available in support.

I am so pleased that in these Covid times we are still able to run these activities.

Update on staff: Congratulations to Mrs Alwyn McRandle on her winning a leadership position at Kaiapoi Borough School to commence beginning 2022.

Update on Prizegivings: These will now occur during the school day, with Senior Secondary (1.00 pm on 18 Nov) and Primary (1-2.40 pm on 16 Dec) during the afternoon and the Yr 9 & 10 Prizegiving in the morning 11-12 on 17 Dec. They will be streamed for parents / caregivers and will include only staff and students. Streaming will be live but also able to be viewed at a later time for your convenience.

Over the first few weeks of this term a group of staff and students are encouraging everyone to wā whakatā.

Last week the challenge was to be creative. Students at lunchtime added their chalk art to the pathway on the
