Dear Parents / Caregivers

We have 3 school values: Seek, Soar and Serve. In term 3 & 4, we have focused on our SERVE value, with supporting the Christmas Shoeboxes, supporting our sponsored students through mufti day and the PTA with their plans, especially the Fair.

We have had primary athletics, swimming continues and the number of outdoor activities increased. Our senior Yr 11-13 students start their exams on Monday, and we are preparing for prizegiving. A big thanks to the whole community for the support of our Twilight Fair.. Encourage your friends and neighbours to come by. I and my student helpers will see you at the Candy Floss, come by for a chat. It is fantastic that we can enjoy these activities that were restricted the last few years. A welcome to Maria Evans, who joins our front Office Team. Ngā manaakitanga Stephen Walters

Year 9 Students came to Year 1 to read in Maori to them.

These beautiful books, new to our library, have been lovingly donated by the Chisholm family. Lael Chisholm, a past student, is the illustrator. Come and check them out in the library.

Twilight Fair

Friday 4th November 2022 4—7 pm

On Friday 4 November the PTA will be holding the Twilight Fair. This will run in the area between the Church and the Primary classrooms, adjacent to Southbrook Road. Primary classes will be running food stalls and the Kaiako/teachers will Seesaw mātua/parents in their classes with information pertinent to the type of food stall. The food stall choices will be finalized and advised shortly.

Whānau/families will also be asked to provide a baking item on the preceding Rāmere/Friday (28 October) (home baked or store bought) as well as a 'bottle' of something (non-alcoholic) such as oil, vinegar, dressing, body wash etc. for selling.

There will also be other stall holders selling a variety of goods, some which will make great Christmas gifts.

It will be a great 'community' atmosphere and children will be entertaining us with musical items throughout.

If you feel like you could help support the evening with setting up or helping at the bake stall etc, please email the PTA on rnlspta@gmail.com. Thank you for supporting us!

Athletics Day

Thank you to all whānau/families and classes who donated to the Christmas Shoebox appeal. 112 boxes were sent to the Christchurch depot, a fantastic number! Just over $1000 was donated to contribute to postage.

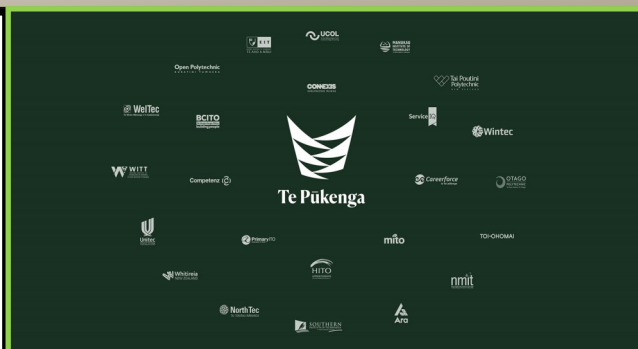

Thank you to senior pupils, Mia Kotzee, Viktoria Dawson, Siniva Ma'u, Frances Flora and Madelyn Fawcett for canvassing the classrooms and raising support. Appreciation to Miss Gibbs and her whānau class for once again contributing the highest number of shoeboxes in our kura/school. Mrs Rennie, Mrs Dawson and Mrs Evans checked the content of every shoebox to ensure that it met the customs regulations – thank you also for your mahi/work.
