End of Term 4

Dear Parents / Caregivers Kia ora koutou

With Easter, the term break and ANZAC day, it has been a long break between Term 1 and Term 2.

There are 3 matters I wish to highlight this week:

1. Thanks to the team that developed our new school mural. The mural has had significant student input, and is a reflection of the history, faith and values of our school.
2. My thanks to our head students, who represented our school at ANZAC day, marching in the parade and laying a wreath.
3. I encourage you and your friends, also with members of your church to come to our production next week. Dave Millar has written a play based on the Book of Ruth.

Finally, thank you for your understanding as we enter a school term of industrial action. We are endeavouring to keep disruptions to a minimum.
